

A Prayer for BF, by Jenn White

Oh those above, send down a dove With every song, we can't go wrong
To help us sing with passion With all that Rob Mance taught us
To stand erect as Craig directs Forever more well know the score
The girls of Bristol Fashion With all the tools he brought us

Oh those above, send down a dove With Janis on zoom, not in the room
To help us sing with passion we blow into our water
To stand erect as Craig directs But not to full or it could pull
The girls of Bristol Fashion and splash our face with water

Oh those above, send down a dove With Debbie T we'll bend our knees
To help us sing with passion And stretch and bend and tangle
To stand erect as Craig directs To twist and turn, go for the burn
The girls of Bristol Fashion We stretch in every angle

Oh those above, send down a dove With Caroline we sing just fine
To help us sing with passion With words of some confusion
To stand erect as Craig directs Not 'paca bel' nor 'Carousel'
The girls of Bristol Fashion But sardines in the ocean

Oh those above, send down a dove as lockdown ends, we'll meet our friends
To help us sing with passion with hugs and lots of chatting
To stand erect as Craig directs but best of all we'll meet in a hall
The Girls of Bristol Fashion Once again we can sing with passion
Oh those above send down a dove
And rid us of this virus
So once again, triumph will rain
For the girls of Bristol Fashion
